I think I'm ahead of Anger & jealosy. only things I can give you is trust and love. I can no longer be mad at you or doubt you. Just like I needed time for myself to figure things out and Clear my head and realize how much I love you there was a voice in my head that said "you idiot, you love her for sure and go give everything you got to be with her for the rest of my ~~lif~~ life", similarly you need time for youself to see how much I love you and how much you love me and how much you care about me but don't rush into anything take your time and see ~~to~~ through a free mind. You'll realize what a special connection we have despite spending very short period of time together. they there are many more letters (may be a book) I've written for you. I'm only sharing the things which seems important. Song [illegible] next lyrics [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] time [illegible]. All this time I thought I loved you more ~~to~~ than you loved me but its actully the other way around.
