, letter nor. [illegible].

→ I trust you and I love you. I think this just sums everything up what a I'm about to say. I'm better at handling situations now & I do have that anger control today All thanks to you and that 4A method & that youtube video. I ~~don't~~ can't ask you to tolerate all my idiosynchrasis.. & I should not be the one who keep on making mistakes each time & ask for you to forgive me. I'm a grown man I should be making right choices & right decisions & stick to my words. I just want you to know. [illegible] may be [illegible]. Sometimes I feel like a total pshyco writing these letter even though you never asked or expected these. [illegible] but I will be doing these. I learnt how to drive a car. I've been with people and didn't let my idiotic self out but still I was funny & I enjoyed and may be they like me & assumes me as their friend but I have this filter now which blocks all the insults I add in ~~taste~~ my words. I went to a solo ~~a~~ trip to ooty in my bike. It was fun. I'd love to take you there sometime. There is one matching even though you are not talking with me I know deep down you have feelings for me. I trust you enough to understand that now and also I realise how hard is for you to say those things that you kept from me for 2 years & ~~two~~ it shows how much you cared and cherished me which I never appriciated. I hurt you in the worst way possible & I doubted you. There are really most auful things that I've ever done to someone. ನಾನ್ ನಿನ್ಗೆ [illegible] [illegible] ಅವಮಾನ [illegible] still I'm sorry ~~but~~. All the anger you have towards me is reasonable. All the things you said to me are hard truth. I'm sure it was ~~hard~~ not easy for you but I'm glad you opend up. Today I trust you and I love you enough to understand that this anger will shrink and will melt away and you might answer my call. I trust your judgement and maturity whatever decesion that you are gonna take will be correct I genuinely mean it. If you decide to never talk to me again I still believe that you are correct and I deserve that and it was reasonable and I'd still love you and respect your judgement. In case if you decide to stay I'll be the happiest guy in the world. Either way I trust you. If things ever end b/w us it'll be due to reason you rejected me. but I ~~can~~ ~~never~~ ~~because~~ I can never give up on you our love. I don't regret ever loving ~~you~~ this much it gave me the strength to shape my life. Love you Rakhee. I've written a song for you, I hope I can share it with you soon & I climbed a tree. → By cool.
